

To classify a patient as having SLE under the 2019 EULAR/ACR criteria, they must have positive ANA and score a total of ≥ 10 points across domains:

ACLA, Anti-cardiolipin antibodies; ACLE, Acute cutaneous lupus erythematosus; ACR, American College of Rheumatology; ANA, Anti-nuclear antibody; Anti- $\beta 2$ gpl, Anti-beta-2 glycoprotein I antibodies; Anti-dsDNA; Anti-Sm, Anti-Smith antibody; CNS, Central nervous system; DLE, Discoid Lupus Erythematosus; EULAR, European League Against Rheumatism; LAC, Lupus anticoagulant; SCLE, Subacute cutaneous lupus erythematosus SLE, Systemic lupus erythematosus. This infographic was made as part of an independent medical education program funded by AstraZeneca.

Aringer M, et al. Arthritis Rheumatol. 2019;71(9):1400-1412.